

Redcore, Words

Layed my eyes on you
I believe it was too soon
But it felt right
Staring deep into your eyes

Words of wisdom
Spoken by the voice inside
Going with the flow
But drowning in confusion

Time is only time
But tell me what's time in your mind?
Words cannot describe
This feeling I have deep inside

Fallen into the hands of fate
Throwing me over these gates
Going into the light
But tell me what will I find
I'm dreaming that I'm over the skies
...of nothingness...

Time is only time
But tell me what's time in your mind?
Words cannot describe
This feeling I have deep inside
