

Redd Kross, It's In The Sky

I know a place
Where I belong
Where people won't judge
The things I've done

I know a place
Where pain will end
And time will stop
And forever begins

It's in the wind
It's in the sky
It's in the wind
It's in the sky
It's in the sky
It's in the sky
It's in the sky

I believe there is a man
With a face I know
Who heals
With his hands

It's in the wind
It's in the sky
It's in the wind
It's in the sky
It's in the sky
It's in the sky
It's in the sky

I don't need proof anymore
I don't need proof anymore
To feel his love
