

Redd Kross, One Chord Progression

He, she from goddess to king
I guess you didn't belong
In a world so tasteless and lame
We really miss your song
Because I - I really wonder
Wonder what went wrong
Because you - you've been away too long

Superstars are frightening -oh
The path they light is dim
Sell your soul to your ego
And watch it do you in
Because I - I really wonder
Wonder what went wrong
Because you - you've been away too long

He knew just one chord progression
He knew just one chord progression
Based his life on one succession

He knew just one chord progression
He knew just one chord progression
He knew just one
He knew just one
He knew just one
He knew just one chord progression
Based his life on one succession
One succession
One succession
