

Redd Kross, Shonen Knife

Take us to that place
We don't want your jive, cracker
Take us to that place
'Cuz we're looking for a master
I'm not talking 'bout no Jesus Christ
But I'm sure that he would like it here
Not everyone who comes here
Ask them to stay here
Yes there are some
That we ask to go away
But you are welcome as is Jesus Christ
And I'm sure that you will dig their scene, uh-huh

I must be where I must go
Take me down to Abba Road

Come right in now, enjoy a choco bar
With the Shonen Knife
Yes, the rock and roll stars
Then wash your face at the public bath
Just around the corner, down the bamboo path, uh-huh

I must be where I must go
Take me down to Abba Road

And tonight
I will love everyone tonight
Yes tonight
I will love everyone tonight

I must be where I must go
Take me down to Abba Road

Take me down to Abba Road....
