

Redd Kross, You Lied Again

I remember you
When you were clear
Super human youth
Won't last a year

I heard that bastard sing
And I found the anger
The kids want to hear

I'll come around
If you don't
Put me down

Because you lied (you lied)
You said that you'd be
Nice to me
But then you lied again
To me - to me

Just keep your mind
And your thoughts clean
And you're happiness
Won't be obscene

You sitting there
In your leather chair
Writing a book
About your needs

Guilt inspired poetry
Just like the kind
Some truckers write
When they're on speed

I'll come around
If you don't
Put me down

Because you lied (you lied)
You said that you'd be
Nice to me
But then you lied again
To me - to me

Just keep your mind
And your thoughts clean
And you're happiness
Won't be obscene

You lied (you lied)
You said that you'd be
Nice to me
But then you lied again
To me - oh yeah

Because you lied
Baby you lied
You lied
Oh well, you lied
