

Rediscover, I Will Forget You

I used to be so warm hearted
Until she started freezing my blood
That girl had intent to kill
But she is not cold enough
I used to have so many more friends
Until she started scaring all of them
Now that she's my ex
I don't ever want to see her again

Girl, I will forget you like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who looks nothing like you
Girl, I will forget you like you never wanted me to
Girl, I'll find someone who reminds me nothing of you

I used to have so many more friends
Until she started scaring them to death
Now that she's my ex
Guys, I want to be friends again
I've got this funny feeling
You don't think I'm really leaving, well
I used to have so many more friends
And now I'd take it all back, oh god

Girl, I will forget you like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who looks nothing like you
Girl, I will forget you like you never wanted me to
Girl, I'll find someone who reminds me nothing of you

When you hear me on your radio, tell them
"He wrote this for me.
Ex-boyfriend on my stereo.
No, that boy went crazy."
I'll forget that you ever lived
I'll forget that you ever existed
and girl you better hope
My new girlfriend never finds out what you did

Um, I wanted you to know that, uh...

Girl, I will forget you like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who looks nothing like you
When my new girlfriend finds out what you said
Oh, you're fucking dead.
Girl, I'll find someone who reminds me nothing of you

When you hear me on your radio, tell them
"He wrote this for me.
Ex-boyfriend on my stereo.
No, that boy went crazy."
I'll forget that you ever, ever lived
I'll forget that you ever existed
And girl you better hope
My new girlfriend never finds out what you did
Girl, you better hope my new girlfriend
Never finds out what you did
