Can't you see, streets they laugh with sparkled eyes
Can't you see, perfect dreams turned shattered lives they fall by the wayside

And a tear, sells their fear
And we cry, I'll tell you why
'Cause we feel their spirits breaking and they don't know who they are
Yeah we see their youth is fading, cause the end is not too far
Hollywood

Can't you see, angels stealing just to stay alive
Can't you see, full of bright lit candles burning out they fall by the wayside

Feel their spirits breaking, and they don't know who they are
Yeah we see their youth is fading, cause the end is not too far
Yeah we feel their spirits breaking, and they don't know who they are
Yeah we see their youth is fading, cause the end is not too far

And a tear, sells their fear
And we cry, I'll tell you why
'Cause we feel their spirits breaking and they don't know who they are
Yeah we see their youth is fading, cause the end is not too far
We feel their spirits breaking and they don't know who they are
Yeah we see their youth is fading, cause the end is not too far
