

Redlightmusic, My Friend

Do you know how much that I loved you?
I have more tears than days we've shared
I'm willing to wait everyday if you'll just come back to me

This loss it's so hard to carry on my own
When I sit here and think of my friend
I can hear his voice he's telling me that it's ok, but it's not, but it's not, but it's not, but it's not my friend

Won't you wake up and find this is not the end
Won't you wake up and find there's more time to spend

Some of us seem to make the world a better place
And I feel that you're one of those people my friend
Without you, it suffers, I love you

I just wanted to say goodbye
And this seems to be the best way that I know how
But you already knew that about me now, didn't you, didn't you, didn't you, didn't you my friend

Won't you wake up and find there's more time to spend
Won't you wake up and find this is not the end

Won't you wake up and find this is not the end
I want to see the ocean in those blue eyes again
Won't you wake up and find there's more time to spend
You're just riding the currents you'll find your way back again

Find your way back again
Find your way
