

Rednex, Ride The Hurricane's Eye (Single Edit)

Who's gonna win
Who's gonna survive
Who's going in
Who's staying alive

Who's gonna win
Who dares to try
Who's gonna Ride The Hurricane's Eye

The warlords have all gathered
They've tightened up their bows
On both sides of the border
The tension starts to grow
For power and for glory
No weakness must be shown

Who's gonna win...
... Ride The Hurricane's Eye

Until the last man standing
The battle will go on
Now time will find an ending
The wait has been too long
The hurricane has risen
And its rider wins it all

Who's gonna win...

The eye is in a violent spin
Crushing everything within
The fighters will go in
And its riders will be kings
