

REDZED, Zkurvene Smutney Sonk

I saw you in the dark
I thought I left a mark
I thought we had the spark
I thought, I guess we did not
You're so confusing
The reason I'm boozing
I don't know why I feel this way
Oh, why I feel this?

Drugs took my soul away
You take my breath away
You are still in my head
I still love you, I still care
Drugs took my soul away
You take my breath away
You are still in my head
I still love you, I still care

You put me through so much pain
I put needles in my vein
You put me through so much pain
I put needles in my vein
