

Reel Big Fish, I'm Her Man (2007)

And in this corner... damn!
You don't wanna get me riled.
You really don't wanna get me riled, man.
You don't know. C'mon!

Let me point my finger at your nose, nose, nose
Whoa, it's not funny, no no no no
I can you you looking down her shirt
I can see you lifting up her skirt
Only gonna tell you once
Only gonna tell you once to just get back

You better stay away from my girlfriend
You better stay away from her
I'm just giving warning so you get no broken bones
You better leave my girl alone

Well, I bet you can't understand what I'm saying, yeah, yeah
Whoa, when the music is playing, yeah, yeah yeah yeah
I can you you looking down her shirt
I can see you lifting up her skirt
I'm only gonna tell you twice
Ask you really, really nice

You better stay away from my girlfriend
You better stay away from her
I'm just giving warning so you get no broken bones
You better leave my girl alone

They're guitar solo fighting over little ol' me!

Let me break your neck and crush your skull, skull, skull
Whoa, you never listen, no, no no no
I can you you looking down her shirt
I can see you lifting up her skirt
And I'm sick of your shit
I can't take much more of it

So you better stay away from my girlfriend
You better stay away from her
I'm just giving warning so you get no broken bones
You better leave my girl alone, huh!

Whoa-oh-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh-oh

Well, that's all folks! Hey-hey!
