

Reffer, Lured

Where do you pick your originality?
It was all that i ever wanted to be
It's amazing how different you can be
I'm always surprised
Your words come so detached
I just won't fit in
Gonna be with you
I will not agree
No!!!
Know we can be together
Wasn't or was it love at first sight?
I can assure we'll make it forever
I can be sure we'll make it through
If i get to be like you
Your frankness is touching
Now my outfit doesn't match
Even if i get hurt
I will keep following your steps, i know
Even in the cold weather i'll be with you
There's nothing left to be said
Doesn't matter if you're right or wrong
There's nothing to see
It's all in you
I'll be just like you
