

Refugee, Grand Canyon Suite

When you go home and sleep this night
Dream of wings and astral flight
Fly with the speed of waking light
And we'll go
And I'll show
Show you the way
To the Grand Canyon

We'll fly from Yucon Point in awe
From the ridge down to the floor
There in its majesty it flows
Slow as time
Then like time
Time, it explodes
The mighty Colorado

We'll swoop right up the Canyon wall
Then, like an eagle, down we'll fall
To fly through the Canyon on a dream
See the river
Crush and roar
See how it roars
In the Grand Canyon

We'll swoop right up the Canyon wall
Then, like an eagle, down we'll fall
To fly through the Canyon on a dream
See the river
Crush and roar
See how it roars
