

Reggie And The Full Effect, Fought and Won One

I'd give the world to you,
All that I'd want to do
If you believe the outcries
I know everything is all right
Don't want to play- that game today

I'd give the world to you
All that I'd ever do
Come hold me close to you
Nothing I'd rather do

If you believe the outcries
I know everything is all right
Don't want to play that game today

And you're motivating..
Separates the smile that cries goodbye, goodbye

Fought and won one
Fought and won one
And it still won't be the same

I'd give the world to you
