

Reggie And The Full Effect, Girl, Why'd You Run

She's driving, oh so very fast
Trying to get away from her past
I don't think she'll escape
So girl why'd you run away
You look so afraid
Is it of me
You can't sit still for vary long
I turned to look but you were gone
I think that I'd stay some more
So girl why'd you run away
You look so afraid
Is it of me
Now that your gone, I wonder
What I could have said to you
I wish I knew you promised me that
(ah damn it)
So girl why'd you run away
You look so afraid
I hope it's not of me
She's driving oh so vary fast
Trying to get away from her past
I don't think she'll escape
So girl why'd you run away
You look so afraid
I hope that it's not of me
