

Reggie And The Full Effect, The Two Blings

There goes my baby
Leaving me today
Don't know why she's leaving me
And don't know what to say

A new frustration on top of all the rest
Funerals are relationships
So wears my Sundays best

Don't tell me everything's okay
It's not enough that you took it all away

What is the problem?
No one tells me why
Leave me at a corner and just
Stand weaving goodbye

When can I see you?
Is all I want to know
Hopefully someday you'll think
About the day you'd go

Don't tell me everything's okay
It's not enough that you took it all away

There goes my baby
(Everything's okay)
