

Regina Belle, It Doesn't Hurt Anymore

Me loving you
Was so easy to do
Now since you left me
Im trying to make it through
Every song I hear
Everywhere I turn
Theres a moment
I had shared with you

All the pain
I thought it would never go away
Oh but now the rain has stopped pouring down
I see a new day coming round

It doesnt hurt anymore
Knowing I live my life without you
Every day I grow stronger
Cause I dont need you any longer
And now Im ready to face a brand new world
It doesnt hurt me

Safe in your arms
Talking all night long
I still remember
But now Im not holding on
I wont be afraid
When love finally calls
Cause now I know the pain
Of losing it all

All my life
All I ever wanted was your love
Oh but since you took it all away
Ive been waiting for today

It doesnt hurt anymore
Knowing I live my life without you
I built a wall so tall
So youre never gonna touch me
And now Im ready to take what I deserve
Cause it doesnt hurt me

I used to cry when I heard your name
I couldnt take it much longer
But when I knew youd never come back again
I had to make my heart stronger

It doesnt hurt anymore
Knowing I live my life without you
Every day I grow stronger
Cause I dont need you any longer

It doesnt hurt anymore
Knowing I live my life without you

It doesnt hurt
It doesnt hurt no more
Knowing I live my life
I live my life without you
Everyday
I grow stronger

It doesnt hurt anymore
Baby, baby I dont need you no more
So tall baby
