

Regina Spektor, Hero fo the story

He never ever saw it coming at all...

It's alright...

Hey, open wide, here comes original sin...

It's alright...

No one's got it all...

power to the people

we don't want it, we want pleasure and the tv's try to rape us and I guess that they're succeeding and we're going to these meetings

but we're not doing any meeting

we're trying to be faithful but we're cheating, cheating, cheating

Hey, open wide, here comes original sin...

It's alright...

No one's got it all...

I'm the hero of the story, don't need to be saved...

It's alright...

No one's got it all...
