

Regurgitator, I Like Repetitive Music

I like repetitive music,
Turn it up 'cos I know how to use it.
I like to hear the bass sound do the rebel rousing Pop the damn multi on the s3000
That's the shit makes the room prone to over-crowding
Now bring the sound in ' ooh! It's pounding!
'scuse me homies, could you please be my cronies and score me a two-pack of soft yellow foamies
'cos I'm the type of guy that puts safety first no safer muthafucka ever walked the earth strapped in all wheel hugging dual bag inflation safer than programmed amplitude modulation feeling a strange sensation?
That's your brain son,
suffering from over-stimulation inflammation
By my reckoning you now have five seconds before lapsing into a coma
Tick this box to indicate you're a donor
Would it be too bold to say I told you to hold the last bar over and over and over?

I'm so fine I score 9.99 from Hollyfield in a Trump production even though I'm 200 of a kind
So inclined to liposuction it's sublime
Like Brittany's larynx at the age of nine.
Watch me try to justify my verbal diarrheic diatribe
In a vain attempt to coincide with the beat
To which brains get tenderised
Lightly battered and deep fried on high
Once again son come get some beats
On the one loops on repeat done
Waveforms deformed, fantast, lyric gymnast
Bombast ecclesiast
Slap that ass hardcore
Make that shit red raw
Blow the disco, slam your head sore
Watch the sure cure beat the prevention
If you want more seek professional medical attention.
