

Regurgitator, Mr T.

keep pushing straight ahead i've learnt from the past that there's no time to regret the woman makes me feel alive she shines in the night to open up my eyes she helps me realise so i run to the streets kicking round on my feet i take freedoms path and i'll let my life be sould dedication to all my realities set your sisters free it's the way it's meant to be
