

Relient K, In Love With The Eighties (Pink Tux To

So it was Jeremy in 1983,
In his ocean pacific tee,
Who got a bloody knee,
On his skateboard,
In the halfpipe,
In the backyard,
That Tuesday night.

And I'm only gonna pierce my left ear,
And I've been working on this mustache all summer long,
And my favorite band will always be tears for fears,
And I'm gonna to wear a pink tux to the prom, a pink tux to the prom.

Cutting class through the first floor window,
Driving fast because I never did things slow,
And I look up to my big bro cuz in the eighties all the ladies grabbed his hands and couldn't let go.

And I'm only gonna pierce my left ear,
And I've been working on this mustache all summer long,
And my favorite band will always be tears for fears,
And I'm gonna to wear a pink tux to the prom, a pink tux to the prom.

Do, do, do-do, do, do, Pink tux to the prom, [x2]
I am going to wear, a pink tux to the prom,
Live without a care, what can possibly go wrong.

When you're the president of the breakfast club,
And you're not hesitant to fall in love,
To fall in love with the eighties, to fall away,
To fall in love with the eighties.

I am going to wear, a pink tux to the prom,
Live without a care, what can possibly go wrong,
I am going to wear a pink tux to the prom,
Live without a care cause you threw it away to fall in love, with the eighties..

Do, do, do-do, do, do [x2]