

Relient K, Jefferson Airplane (Demo)

If it hurts, kiss it better.
You wear skirts, I write nice letters.
Never said nothing with flowers
Though we always talked for hours.
And I know it gets much colder when I cry on my own shoulder
But we know the show will go on
Guess I know I guess I'll throw on..

Chorus 1

Some Jefferson Airplane, I'm trapped and I am enclosed
But I won't complain or open all the windows.
Jefferson Airplane, I'm trapped and I am enclosed
But I won't complain or open all the windows.
'cause when it's colder I feel much better,
When I cry on my own shoulder, just throw on a sweater and go

Chorus 2

And I'll go where the weather's nice and warm
And I'll go to where I am reborn.
And I'll go 'cause in my dreams I can't complain.
And I'll go in my Jefferson Airplane.

You make the calls, I cover my ears.
Niagara Falls still flows on New Year's.
I will save your plunging neckline
Kiss your face, you try to deck mine.
If I behave, it's gonna cost 'em
Skip the rave in downtown Boston.
We all know the show will go on, guess I know I guess I'll throw on

(Chorus 1)

And I'll go to where the weather's nice and warm
And I'll go there since I am reborn
And I'll go 'cause in my dreams I can't complain.
And I'll fly in my Jefferson Airplane.

(Chorus 1)
