Relient K, Where Do I Go From Here

Leaving
May not be coming home
Needing
To know I'm not alone
Even
Though I can't feel a thing

Taking
Time to get over it
Making
The best of what won't quit
Breaking
Me down I can't feel a thing

Where do I go Where do I stand Where can I find myself again Where do I go If not disappear Where do I go from here

Tracing
My steps right back to you
Racing
The clock to save an hour or two
And facing
The fact that I don't feel a thing

I'm dealing With what I can't control Feeling Confused cause I don't know If healing Is when you don't feel a thing

Where do I go Where do I stand Where can I find myself again Where do I go If not disappear Where do I go from

Whoa-oh Whoa-oh Whoa-oh

I still can't feel a thing
