

Relish, Rainbow Zephyr

Well I've tasted the mustard seed and I've walked with the man and I've read the isis papers but have always known what I am and I can sing you songs about the mystical men but I won't make much sense

I profess

Chorus:

oh, rainbow zephyr

let your beauty come alive

let your colour fill the sky rainbow zephyr

why don't you liberate my mind?

she's in the waiting room and she's sat in line well the question is why cos I've been good all my life giving up the gift you say the good die young now do gurus and philosophers still turn you on?

Chorus: ah, rainbow zephyr

I said rainbow zephyr

why don't you liberate my mind?

its like a purse without violets we go from the wheel to what's real and I said this ain't no repograse but I tell ya now its just the way I feel are you a champion of science or are you some freak show fool?

because what cannot be proved can still be true

Chorus (repeat):
