

Remedy, Sun's Gonna Shine

(Rose Tattoo)

We're living in a time of hatred
Toiling out of pain and woe
We're living in a time of hypocrisy
Where honesty don't count no more

I know we're living in a time of heartache
Living in a time of shame
I do believe deep in my soul
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine
Once again

We're living in a time of hunger
Well offs seem to turn their heads
Living in a time of futile war
Where proud nations need to beg

I know we're living in a time of heartache
Living in a time of shame
I do believe deep in my soul
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine

Once again

Yes I believe
I do believe, the sun's gonna shine
I do believe, the sun's gonna shine

Living in a time of hatred
Where politicians turn their heads
Living in a time of futile wars
Where proud nations need to beg

I know we're living in a time of heartache
Living in a time of shame
I do believe, deep in my soul
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine
The sun's gonna shine
Once again, yeah

I do believe, the sun's gonna shine
I do believe, the sun's gonna shine
I do believe, the sun's gonna shine
I do believe, the sun's gonna shine
