

Remember Maine, Forever Ended Today

Hey you, its me. Its good to hear your voice.
But its been too long, been too long since I've held you in my arms.
But the night is young and so is my heart.
When we walk together.

Hey you, its me. Its good to taste your lips.
But its been too long, been too long.
But I still remember our night together
When you held me tight, like the night we said goodbye.
Will we walk together?

Well this is my one last chance to say goodbye to you.
In the story line, yeah.
So I'll take every second they give before we spoil.
Yeah woah woah.
We thought we'd last forever, but all that faded away.
Forever en--- forever ended today.

All my tomorrows and yesterdays are buried in this mess I've made for you.
You're my canvas. You started the fire in my heart.
Now we've crossed the fog lines and its too late to stay.
And I'm the only one upon that star, upon that star.
And I'm the only one upon that star, upon that star.
And I'm home, and I'm home.
And I'm home, and I'm home and I'm home and I'm home,
Yes I'm home, yes I'm home.
