

Remembering Never, Rapekissing Jesus

I will never sleep again until i rest in pieces i place the blame solely on your hands for no reason or a purpose i'm plagued with endless callousness just one sacrifice can't justify the raping of my life you've cut my wrists you've done the dirty work for me you've taken it all you've taken everything my tears have burned clean dry and sear holes in my flesh i want to leave this place i have nothing left cut my throat one thousand times to be with her once more when all was said and done you killed two birds with one stone no omore perfect memories no more f**king tears no more memories my own tears will be thoughts of you and your perfection the sound of her voice is comfort to my ears i've got one bullet and the barrel aimed at your heart i'm killing you like you've killed me
empty salt through your hands to make you feel like me my last wish to see your dead f**king body
