

Remission Blame, Angels

I have nothing I could give to you
I Still can see
Those days from deep past Feel taste in my mouth
Years what gone
So many bad dark nights I forgot the taste of your lips
Ref.

Where the angels sleep
Well meet some day
Above wind and water
Between fire and the earth
Between fire and the earth
The air smell spring
Rain kisses the earth
And I still can feel
Smell of past years
past years
Ref.

Where the angels sleep
Well meet some day
Above wind and water
Between fire and the earth
Between fire and the earth
Thunder cut the sky
Black like my thoughts
When I miss to years
What never go back!
So many bad dark nights
I forgot the taste of your lips
Ref. 2x

Where the angels sleep
Well meet some day
Above wind and water
Between fire and the earth
Between fire and the air
