

Remo Forrer, Not Okay

I don't know if you're waiting
Haven't seen your face in far too long
I hope you know it's frustrating
You said you never meant to steer me
Wrong
But I hate it how you
Don't wanna pick up the phone cuz I'm not worth a call

I got so lost in this stupid game
I didn't notice that you don't wanna play
Drag me in, just to turn away
Guess you didn't care that I was planning to stay

So keep your love, I'll keep the pain
It's not your fault you don't feel the same
I'm not one to point the blame
But you walked out, and I'm not okay

Catch myself overthinking
People tell me I'm drinking far too much
Kinda feels like I'm sinking
And It's the only thing that makes it
Stop
Cuz I hate it how you
Don't wanna pick up the phone cuz I'm not worth a call

I got so lost in this stupid game
I didn't notice that you don't wanna play
Drag me in, just to turn away
Guess you didn't care that I was planning to stay

So keep your love, I'll keep the pain
It's not your fault if you don't feel the same
I'm not the one to point the blame
But you walked out, and I'm not okay

And I'm not okay
No, I'm not okay
And I'm not okay
No, I'm not okay

So keep your love, I'll keep the pain
It's not your fault if you don't feel the same
No, I'm not one to point the blame
But you walked out, and I'm not okay

So keep your love, I'll keep the pain
It's not your fault if you don't feel the same
I'm not one to point the blame
But you walked out, and I'm not okay

No, I'm not one to point the blame
But you walked out, and I'm not okay
