

Remy Zero, Apology For You

You ride to work
And I say I love you
To heal all this pain
I'm dying to
Your words are flames
That feels fire out for me
To see you smile
Is all I ever wanted to see
For me

As we became
Became I need you
I lost my wings
But you say the word
I'll seem like fire out for you
To hear your voice
Is all I ever wanted to do
For you

I try to stay here
But all I did was brought you down
You pulled away
Just look at me now
If I could change
I'd tear this twisted frame in two
I'd bend my life for you
For you
