

Remy Zero, Smile

v.1:

I may not smile,
as you turn and walk away,
my heart just falls,
on every word you say.
I will not fight,
cause you will not listen.

bridge:

And no i never lead my troops to war.
And no i never learned what my life was for.
And all i ever got was nothing.

chorus:

Cause you always said one day.
You always said soon I'd do it.
You always said now the waiting.
Now you've waited too long,
Waited too long.
I thought you was right cause i knew i was wrong,
Now you can cry if you want, cry if you want
I'll be hanging myself Myself, myself,

v.2:

I will return,
As a brilliant shining light,
The things i've said,
Will all be proven right
One pill, one night,
And your whole lifes wasted.

bridge 2:

And no you never lead your troops to war,
And no you never learned what your life was for,
And all i ever gave you was nothing.

chorus 2:

Cause I always said one day.
I always said soon I'd do it.
I always said now that you've waited.
Now you've waited too long,
waited too long,
thought i was weak but proved that i'm strong.
and you can cry if you want, just cry if you want.
your hanging yourself, yourself, yourself
