Renaissance, Northern Lights

Destination outward bound I turn to see the northern lights behind the wing Horizons seem to beckon me Learned how to cry too young, so now I live to sing

The northern lights are in my mind
They guide me back to you
Horizons seem to beckon me
Learned how to cry too young, so now I live to sing

You know it's hard away from you Travelling roads and passing through It's not for money and it's not for fame I just can't explain, sometimes it's lonely

Marking the space between the days Early hours pass away I sing to you of northern lights I sing for you of northern nights

Past or future, here or there Shelter comes in words from you, so talk to me I hear your voice, it comforts me In morning dreams I take your hand, you walk with me

The northern lights are in my mind
They guide me back to you
Peace enfolds the still night air
Home again I look for you and find you there

Desintation homeward now
Take the easy way, bring me down
Making the hard way now I see
Hard to be really free, I'm missing you near me

Marking the space between the days Early hours pass away I sing to you of northern lights I sing for you of northern nights

The northern lights are in my mind They guide me back to you The northern nights are in my eyes They guide me back to you

The northern lights are in my mind They guide me back to you The northern nights are in my eyes They guide me back to you

The northern lights are in my mind They guide me back to you
