

Renard, You Know Me

Oh, you know me
I'll tear you apart
Oh, send to me
Your skin, your mind, your heart

Dancing and twirling
The alcohol's swirling
Around the inside of my glass
With my eyes upon you
I'm trying to burn a hole
Right through your dress

Oh, you know me
I'll tear you apart
Oh, send to me
Your skin, your mind, your heart

Once you know it
There's no stopping
How your pulse races
When you're near me
I can hear it pounding
Just so we're clear
I'm not going home
unless you're with me
don't resist me
it's better this way
you'll see

As night nears its close
I am swimming through droves
Of people aimlessly winding
Off of the dance floor
Where I set my paramour
Motion past your lips

Oh, you know me
I'll tear you apart
Oh, send to me
Your skin, your mind, your heart

Once you know it
There's no stopping
How your pulse races
When you're near me
I can hear it pounding
Just so we're clear
I'm not going home
unless you're with me
don't resist me
it's better this way
you'll see

Once you know it
There's no stopping
How your pulse races
When you're near me
I can hear it pounding
