

Renderfly, Beyond Because...

Found the key to my cruel buzz. and drove beyond because Too far, I crashed the car Light's were sinking in the tide, but someone deep inside, said
"Fight! Come back alive but you,

Gotta find what you're looking for, only one way how Yes you gotta love me a whole lot more than you do right now"

Once the spirit of a child, so innocent so wild, and free. Was there in me

Now the only thoughts at play turn summer skies to grey,
and wash rainbows away, so I've,

Gotta find what I'm looking for, only one way how Yes I've gotta love me a whole lot more than I do right now

Bring on the battle I'll shoot out the wings March to the deadbeats defend. Angels sing

Gotta love me, yes I gotta love me
