Rentals, So Soon

I've thought about this one too much I know you know it I wish you would explain to me why you pulled me through this

So soon So sad I guess it was just a laugh.

So serious, so sad, so soon I just left you I left your whole town, I feel like hell For everything you pulled me through

So soon
So sad
I guess it was just a laugh
I know I crowded you
Made you so uncomfortable
I wish I had control and started out more casual

So soon So sad I guess it was just a laugh

I guess it was just a laugh So soon So sad I guess it was just a laugh
