

Renton, I'm Not Sure

i'm not sure what happened the night before it is all black, so hard to figure it out i'd like to know, were you in control?
did it feel like making love or having fun?
emotions between us - are they true?
you light up the red light, then it goes blue
don't keep me on hold for too long /x2
don't keep me on hold, it's time to move!
i'm not sure what's this feeling for little clear up would put us back on track my only thought - will there be some more?
there's too much confusion one could simply take
emotions between us - are they true?
you light up the red light, then it goes blue
don't keep me on hold for too long /x2
don't keep me on hold, it's time to move!
it's so hard to... figure it out, figure it out, figure it out...
