

Repeat Offender, I Collide

I'm in two minds about this whole thing
I found no redemption
Now these words replays
All the pictures

It's a vicious circle
Round and round
And up and down
And deeper down I go
But still no one notices

If I drive all my patience away
I collide
I might drown in the wells
That are made in my eyes
Here I go again
I'm lost again (again)
But I collide with...

Another shine
And twenty-one eyes to find
That passing time was easy
Alone
Coz I was never alone

But here it comes again
Another change
Moved away
Pack a day
Whatever happened to the social days?
Revolving doors replaced

But I can't believe
I've seen so many People leave
Or was I the one to wash my hands of them?

If I drive all my patience away
I collide
I might drown in the wells
that are made in my eyes
Here I go again
I'm lost again (again)
But I collide with... (I COLLIDE!)

If I drive all my patience away
I collide
I might drown in the wells
that are made in my eyes (X 2)
Here I go again
I'm lost again (again)
But I collide with...
I collide with... (I COLLIDE!)
