

Reprisal, Once Were Vegans

This shit happens everyday
Everywhere I go it's the same
Stories of bitches that drop the game
Some are too weak, some are looking for fame now

You played yourself for the last time
You thought you were a real hustler but you are and always will be nothing but a sucker

Frontin me like you got the knowledge
Talking mad shit on those who still be straight edge
You're a disgrace to all of us
You're nothing but a dick
You will always be a dick

Fuckin foo'
You're just a waste of life
You scum
You're just a waste of life

So you wanna take part of the show-biz
Become someone, live large and shit
What a pathetic fool
Let me teach you some rules

This world is full of dropouts like you
No matter if you've covered your vegan tattoo
We'll always shit on your name
Give us the cash and fuck the fame

You got no shame
Once were vegans!!

You made a promise to yourself
A promise that you broke
Because your life is nothing but a joke
Now tell me how you feel, how you feel?
The time has come for me to start to kill

You turned your back on your past
Now turn round again
I'm waiting here with a knife in my hand
In your opinion a friend is he who's always by your side, in my opinion he's the one who kill you in time
