Republic of Loose, The Steady Song Feat. Isabel

I met your mother an hour ago.

And then I told her just where to go.

Down on the pavement to lick my balls.

She didn't show no discretion at all.

She said, please, Go steady with it, sometime, Go steady with it, Oh oh yeah, Go steady with it, oh I met your father an hour ago. (WHAAT)

I punched his lights out and stole his dough. (oh no no no no no)

I bought some heroin and brought it to your school.

I don't know why i'm so unbelievably cool.

(Screeching) (Gibberish)
