

Repugnant, Hungry Are The Damned

Denounced myself from the god of the light
Drank the blood of eternal life and darkness might Serving him with cloven hooves, thus I infest
Demands of his infernal majesty's request

After midnight I excel, poisoned by the lye of hell
Rise again to bathe in crust, dwelling in perverted lust
The likes of me are taking over, rage across the land
Beastly ones are in command...
...And hungry are the damned

Nosferatu inside of you
Nosferatu inside of you and me

Bloodlust drives me to kill again
Ya'll will die from the terror of my reign
Discarded corpses, dried of life left as trace
Behold my fangs as they sink into your fucking face

After midnight I excel, poisoned by the lye of hell
Rise again to bathe in crust, dwelling in perverted lust
The likes of me are taking over, rage across the land
Beastly ones are in command...
...And hungry are the damned

Up from a shallow grave
Clotted blood is what I crave
An apex predator
Always hungry for more
Slit your throat and you'll see
Reborn in morbidity
...Just like me

[Lead: Goore]

Ghastly proceeds the funeral procession
What once was hidden is now at hand
Vastly exceeds the global recession
We're all smitten so we are the damned

Nosferatu inside of you
Nosferatu inside of me

[Lead: Goore]

After midnight I excel, poisoned by the lye of hell
Rise again to bathe in crust, dwelling in perverted lust
The likes of me are taking over, rage across the land
Beastly ones are in command...
