Repulsion, Festering Boils

Scorching through your tortured mind Burning in your eyes Hideous infection - painful death Slowly you demise Now you see your friends all die Your trying to withstand But you can't fight this evil foe

Inner organs start to rot Smell the curdling skin When it eats into your brain Is when the pain begins

Lonesome death by festering boils You're dying all alone But as you see from beyond the grave They feed upon your bones

Agony, torture, eternal pain Festering boils drive you insane Rabid disease destroys mankind Festering boils eat your mind
