

Return, Can You Forgive Me

What will it take to be friends forever.
Oh, how I want it, I wonder to you.
In all these hardtimes, the good times got lost,
it can be as it was.

When we were true lovers
when there was trust.

CHORUS

Can you forgive me for what I have done.
Can you love me or will you be gone.
Cause I need you to be by my side.
So I want lie no more.

When will we learn not to hurt one an other,
I dont want to lose you, I want you to stay.
When we grow older I know that we'll say we we're ment to be.

As we were when we were true lovers
and there still was trust.

Can you forgive me, for what I have done
Can you love me, or will you be gone
Cause I need you to be by my side
So I won't lie no more

Let's not waste time fighting, going nowhere fast.
So lets stand strong together with this heartache in the past.

Can you forgive me, for what I have done
Can you love me, or will you be gone
Now I need you, to be by my side
You ain't gonna cry no more x3
