

Reverend Horton Heat, Someone In Heaven

theres someone in heaven to talk with today someone that know just the right thing to say you lived a full life, you fought the good fight theres someone in heaven to talk with tonight he'll look the same then will so will just as you did when your marriage was new you'll roll over laughing bout a silly ol fight

you've got someone in heaven to talk with today someone who knows just the right thing to say so walk up the stairs to his bright shining light

you used to hold hands and ride round the park stop by the school yard were maybe you'd spark so take up the wire sing us a song we'll be there someday and we'll sing along
