

Reverie Sound Revue, One Marathon

I see you carry the code
Its in code Ill be left again
And the sun seems to follow through
Whoa, on a promise to follow you
Baby the climb, will in time brim out you as youre always
Seek in me a harmony of rhyme
In time as I wait
As time unwinds

Chorus:

As I dive over the finish line
As I dive over the finish line
I see you calling his name
Yes, and cant explain the whys of your wishes
Then you call me places
And you leave me ages
While I send my senses to outplay my patience
But I know you know I
I must swear you hear me say,
Though, our misses are not in glance
So, I miss you, whoa, whoa
And I run through, through you

Chorus:

As I dive over the finish line
As I dive over the finish line
As I dive over the finish line
