

Revlovers, Copacabana

show me the way to Copacabana I want to dance samba tropicana then take me to Yokohama I want to meet a girl named Hanna

there goes my dream
me and my dreams
all my dreams

I'd love to listen to the music in Havana and see the east of the sun in Panama live for a moment in Louisiana and then go back to Copacabana

all my dreams

[the] mind exploration. with pin-up faces of my friends.
I'm going across the ages and wake up with eyes full of sand [the] broken expectations. when every day I'm lost like a king of a fake empire I'm asking for more (sweet) sun

Hey London, I wanna play dulciana score during the final at Maracana talk about life with people in Hariana and here enter my soul into nirvana

me and my dreams
all my dreams
