

Rex Mundi feat. Susana, Nothing at all

This morning comes a step to soon
A lonely gaze and empty room
You're a far crowd a distant memory
It's something inside of me always moving
I'd be standing here without You
As if nothing's happened
As if nothing's wrong
The world seems to move on
The world carries on
I starve for your love
Hungry I'm found
As if nothing's happened...
Nothing at all...
