Rez Band, Every Time It Rains

I been alone, out on my own,
Exchanging truth for a lie, pleasure for pride,
Hell on my side,
Say what you please, this brought me to my knees.

Jesus, you cried for me when I could weep no more,
You died for me when I was dead in sin,
You felt for me when I was numb within,
You searched for me and brought me home again.

Why do you love me when I treat you so wrong?
I give you heartache and you give me a song,
I leave you silence, cold and empty stares...but still I know you care,
Lord, wherever I run, you're there.

Lord, you cried for me when I could weep no more,
You died for me when I was dead in sin,
You felt for me when I was numb inside,
You searched for me and brought me home again.

Lord, you cried for me when I could weep no more,
You died for me when I was dead in sin,
Lord, you felt for me when I was numb within,
Oh, you searched for me and brought me home again.
