

Rez Band, I Will Do My Last Singing In This Land

I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere,
I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere,
I don't know where we will be,
As long as my good Lord still be in me, I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere.

I will do my last crying in this land, child, somewhere, (might be Chicago)
I will do my last crying in this land, child, somewhere,
I don't know where...where it will be; I may be sailing far across the sea,
I will do my last crying in this land, child, somewhere.

And I will do my last dying in this land, child, somewhere,
I will do my last dying in this land, child, somewhere,
I don't know where...where it will be,
As long as my Jesus, he is there with me, I will do my last dying in this land, child, somewhere.

And I will do my last singing in this land, oh child, somewhere, oh yeah,
I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere,
I don't know, I don't care where we will be,
As long as my Jesus, he's leading me, I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere.

I don't know where...where it will be; I may be sailing far across the sea,
I will do my last singing in this land, child, somewhere.

(On behalf of all of us from Rez, we love you, God bless you, goodnight)
