

Rez Band, Lightshine

Who-whoa!

If I pay, will you take me away, prove your worth to me?
We've been lied to before - how can we be sure?
What if...what if it hurts to believe?
Oh, anyway, open up your door
Open up the door and I'm coming in
I know I'm tired of following sin
I want to give myself to you, Jesus
But I got some problems I want to talk to you about now...

Oh, Lightshine!

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah,
I been hit and I been down, but I never carried my cross through town
I don't understand it, oh, and I might not be...might not be willing to learn
Tell me, why did you come?
And why were born where the dogs eat dog, and the pigs get all the corn?

Oh, Lightshine, will you be mine?
Do you understand where I've been?
Twilight carries into night
If I go there, will you follow me in?
What does it mean for a rebel to dream?
I'm a gambler - how can I win?
Am I in danger?
Don't be a stranger to me, yeah, yeah
Don't be a stranger to me

I used to sit and wonder where I was going
I used to wonder where it would be, yeah, yeah
When the curtain fell...when the curtain fell and time caught up with me
Have you heard the satanic symphony?
Have you realised that conductor runs you too, unless you know Jesus?
Oh, when the Father calls, do you stall and stall
Or will you search for the key and receive the truth?

But if your yoke is easy, then your burden is light, (light, light...)
We can take it one day at a time
Oh Lord, if you change my heart and you change my life, that will surely change my mind

Lightshine, will you be mine?
Do you understand where I've been?
Twilight carries into night
If I go there, will you follow me in?
Oh, what does it mean for a rebel to dream?
I'm a gambler - how can I win?
Am I in danger?
Don't be a stranger to me, yeah, yeah
Don't be a stranger to me

Lightshine, will you...will you be mine?
Do you understand where I've been?
Am I in danger?
Don't be a stranger to me, yeah, yeah
