

Rez Band, Sacrifice Of Love

You're on the road or you're on the highway,
One or the other will take you there,
But it's a tall road, and it'll cost you,
The road to glory or the road to despair?

Sacrifice, it was a sacrifice of love, whoa,
There is a price to pay, today or later on.

Every king...every king has his kingdom,
Every servant...every servant has his trade,
Every lord...every lord has his lady,
You are the bride for which he paid.

Sacrifice, it was a sacrifice of love, whoa,
There is a price to pay, today or later on,
Sacrifice, it was a sacrifice of love, whoa,
There is a price to pay, today or later on.

The road is narrow, the cross is real,
But it's the right way, doesn't matter how you feel,
Because the saviour...the saviour doesn't change,
Not even death could hold him in the grave.

Sacrifice, it was a sacrifice of love, whoa,
There is a price to pay, today or later on,
Sacrifice, it was a sacrifice of love, whoa,
There is a price to pay, today or later on.

Today or later on.
